

Florida Building Code 2010

Chapter 9

Fire Protection Systems

SPONSORED BY:

Stay Safe Enterprises, LLC
1721 Farmington Circle
Wellington, FL 33414
561-779-7199

1. Discussion on the provisions of Chapter 9
 2. Discussion on the interrelationship between codes
-

Timeline

This is a one hour course. It is designed as either a stand alone course, or to be included as a module in other required training for alarm contractors.

Presentation Method:

- 1) Lecture presentation with exam
- 2) Video/CD presentation with exam
- 3) Online with exam

Evaluation Method:

10 question multiple choice / true false test at the conclusion of the session

Goals and Objectives:

To provide a foundation of knowledge for the low voltage contractor pertaining to the requirements of the Florida Building Code, 2010 Edition, Chapter 9

Develop an understanding of where the requirements are for legal and code compliant system.

Description of Course:

See attached Outline and course submittal forms.

Florida Building Code 2010

Chapter 9

Fire Protection Systems

Course Objectives or Goals

- To provide a foundation of knowledge for the low voltage contractor pertaining to the requirements of the Florida Building Code, 2010 Edition, Chapter 9.
- Develop an understanding of where the requirements are for legal and code compliant system.

Method of Course Presentation

- Licensed contractors will present the material, and business professionals qualified as outlined in 489.
- Material will be presented in a lecture, and discussion format.
- Online delivery

Method of Evaluation of Course Participants

- Written examination at the conclusion of the course
- Evaluation forms will be distributed as well for participants to critique the course, and the instructor and help develop the direction for future courses.

Qualifications of Course Instructor

- At present the sole course instructor shall be Roy Pollack. His qualifications are as follows:
 - Instructor for the Alarm Association of Florida since 1992
 - Instructor for the National Burglar Alarm Association since 1994
 - Training Coordinator of the Year, NBFAA, 1995
 - State approved course provider since 1998

- Florida State DBPR Alarm Contractor 1 (EF) License Holder since 1988
- Licensed Georgia Low Voltage contractor
- New Jersey Certified Fire and Burglar Alarm Contractor
- New York State Fire and Burglar Alarm Contractor
- New York City approved Fire Alarm Installer
- BS in Business Administration from CW Post College at Long Island University, 1980.