

2010 Florida Building Code, Administration Advanced Code Training

Course Description

This course is designed to cover the administrative requirements of the 2010 Florida Building Code. This course covers requirements such as application of the code, Permit requirements, inspection requirements, plans requirements, certificate of occupancy requirements, stop work orders and more. Method of instruction will be by Power Point presentation and open discussion.

Course Syllabus and time line

Florida Building Code topics covered from chapter 1

- Building Code Evolution
- Application of the code
- Powers and duties of the Building Official
- Permits
- Application for permit
- Work starting before permit issuance
- Permit issued on basis of an affidavit
- Construction Documents and plan review
- Temporary approvals
- Inspections
- Threshold buildings
- Certificate of Occupancy and Completion
- Connection of service utilities
- Stop Work Orders

Total 50 minuets 1 hour CEU credit.

Course Objectives

This courses objective is to educate construction professionals in the procedures and requirements found in chapter 1 of the 2010 Florida Building Code. After taking this course attendees should thoroughly understand how this chapter applies to all construction that is regulated by the Florida Building Code. Also this courses objective is to be classified as an Advanced Building Code course, meeting the license renewal requirements for F.S. 489 Division I and II contractors.