

Learning Objectives:

Course Name:

Post-Flooding Considerations and Mold

As a result of this course, participants should be able to:

- Identify guidelines/associations that deal with post-flooding in structures
- Understand the safety precautions that must be followed
- Define the “categories of water”
- Understand clean up methods required for building components and major household furnishings
- Understand moisture movement
- Recognize the conditions favorable for mold and the possible health effects
- Understand the levels of mold remediation
- Recognize what tools and strategies can be used in mold remediation
- Understand the ramifications of their actions with regard to legal/insurance issues
- Understand the importance of receiving additional training and using resources to develop their own business plan with regard to post-flooding activities