

Learning Objectives:

Course Name:

Residential Roofing and Hurricanes

As a result of this course, participants should be able to:

- Identify characteristics of hurricanes
- Understand the term wind-borne debris and its applicability
- Describe the RICOWI/DOE/ORNL agency partnership
- Understand aerodynamic terms as related to roofing
- Describe what are believed to be the causes behind roof covering failures
- Understand where information can be found in the Code with regard to roof coverings
- Identify where they can find additional information on various roof coverings