2. NEW BUSINESS:

- L Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) from the Department of Business & Professional Regulation (DBPR) of $167,741.58 on November 27, 2001.

Previously Available ($54,552.51) minus Current Obligations ($41,228.75) = $13,323.76 plus new EFT (167,741.58) equal Balance ($181,065.34).

Next ECLB's biennial funding will be in 2002. No more funds are anticipated from DOE.

- L Contracts for R00-7 (FIU) & R00-11 (U/F) have been executed and will end on time (6/30/02).
- L Review of Final Reports for existing grants will fall to current members. Preferred method of transmitting report—electronically. Please copy me on all E-Mails (michael.ashworth@dca.state.fl.us).
- L First report to be available electronically (“Electronic Documents: Saving Contractor’s Time & Money”) by Dr. Kevin Miller, (formerly at U/F; now at BYU), is posted on our web site (www.floridabuilding.org) under the “Florida Building Commission” icon, “Committees”, “Research Advisory (BCIAC)”.

The BCIAC web page format containing the reports will be changed to more of a Table of Contents pull down menu when the Tech Pubs have been scanned into “pdf” format and posted on the web site.

- L Additional Business?
