

FLORIDA BUILDING COMMISSION

Education TAC Report

July 1, 2002

Orlando, Florida

Members attending: Dick Browdy (Chair), Collene Walter, Mike Rodriguez, Clarence Tibbs, Ed Kinberg, Max Rodriguez, Burt Folce, Richard Reynolds, Herminio Gonzalez

Committee Objectives

- To Approve July 2002 agenda
- Presentation/Discussion by the Building Code Administrator
- Presentation/Discussion by Martin County
- Discussion on white paper concerning the Training Program
- Summary and Review of Meeting Work Products/Action item, Assignment and Next Steps.

Agenda and Minutes Review and Approval

July Agenda approved.

Overview

- Ron Nutter informed the TAC that he would like to defer his report to a later time.
- Martin County was not present to give their presentation
- Rick Watson discussed the White Paper that was developed by Building a Safer Florida (BASF), memorandum attached.
- The committee outlined the following entities involved in the process and areas that need to be defined.

Entities

Florida Building Commission
Education TAC
Program Oversight Committee
BASF
Licensing Boards/DBPR
Trade Associations
Private Construction Schools
Colleges & Universities
Education Administrator
Board of Appeals - Government
BOAF

Areas

Advanced Courses
Ongoing Core (updates)
Record keeping CEU's
CEU requirements (hours)
Marketing Construction Edu.
Overall Coordination/Admin.
Funding Responsibility
Content Oversight
Provider Oversight/Quality
Train the Trainer
Instructor Oversight/Quality

- The following areas were discussed:
 - < Use of TAC's to recommend course content
 - < Florida Building Commission (FBC) develop course criteria, allow multiple interests to develop and teach
 - < FBC as oversight body - not develop courses
 - < Use existing resources
 - < FBC do quality oversight for delivery
 - < Multiple advanced courses need to be developed
 - < FBC provides criteria for advanced content, allow multiple providers
 - < Licensing Boards determine number of advanced hours required

Committee Actions

Motion- Approve Agenda, Burt Folce, Mike Rodriguez- Second

Requested Action of the Commission

Next Steps

Meeting continued into the Program Oversight Committee at 11:00 AM.