Committee Report:

The Electrical Technical Advisory Committee was called to order at 10:00 AM and the agenda for October 18, 2004 was approved.

8 of the 11 committee members were present: Chairman-Mike McCombs, Tarry Baker, Jay Dagner, Leonard F. Devine Jr., Oriol T. Haage, Clarence Tibbs, Joe Territo and Dwight Wilkes.

3 of the 11 committee members were absent: Ed Carson, Larry Smith and Roy Van Wyk
Representing the Florida Building Commission Staff was Raymond Dennis Harquail.

The following Declaratory Statement was discussed:

DCA04-DEC-171, petitioner - Joseph McCann of Coral Springs. The question is: "Under the Florida Building Code, Sections 104 and 105 are permits and inspections required on satellite dish installations in the State of Florida?"

By unanimous vote, the recommended response and answer to be submitted to the commission is: Yes

Two new business issues were discussed:

1. Oriol Haage presented an issue dealing with Air Conditioning System Change-Out in single family as well as multiple occupancy high rise buildings. The committee will research this issue.

2. The 2005 version of National Electric Code has been released and is now available. The committee needs to obtain copies of the new code and start meeting in December to review and analyze the changes in the 2005 NEC and then report to the commission how these changes will affect the 2004 Florida Building Code and Florida Residential Code.

The committee was adjourned at 11: 15AM.
