

Maintenance Mechanic

Position Summary

Key Responsibilities:

- Identifying and correcting all unsafe conditions and completing a safety assessment of all work prior to starting the job to support our "Zero Harm" Policy.
- Troubleshoot, monitor, adjust, maintain and repair manufacturing equipment and machinery throughout the production facility and complete necessary paperwork accurately and timely.
- Diagnose equipment operating issues and makes required repairs.
- Changes pumps, motors, conveyors and other components as needed.
- Works with other Mechanics and Electricians to resolve operational equipment issues.
- Operates forklift, scissor lift, boom lift and overhead crane when needed.
- Fabricate and weld tools or equipment when required.
- Operates precision machine tools to make or repair parts.
- Ability to work variable shifts, including weekends and holidays.
- The position is subject to 24-hour call out; shift, weekend and overtime work.
- Responsibility & Accountability for being compliant with all IKO rules, policies and SOPs.

Skills & Qualifications:

- Proven experience working in and maintaining a Safe work environment with intimate knowledge of LOTO procedures and other safe practices.
- Associates Degree in Industrial Maintenance or a Certified Industrial Mechanic or Millwright.
- Minimum of five years maintenance experience in a plant setting.
- Millwright skills, welding and machining experience preferred.
- Excellent working knowledge of appropriate use of hand tools and maintenance equipment.
- Ability to properly disassemble, clean, repair and reassemble complex mechanical devices such as gearboxes, pumps and motors.
- Ability to fabricate simple parts for corrective maintenance.
- Ability to read and understand detailed repair & instruction manuals.
- Must be able to work with computer based maintenance software.
- Possess superior analytical and troubleshooting skills.
- Must be able to safely lift and move up to 75 pounds on a routine basis.
- Must be able to access equipment for repair and maintenance, This may require crawling, bending, lying underneath equipment, crouching.
- Requires excellent manual dexterity.